

Welcome to The Peacock House Art Foundation's Artist Membership! We're glad to have you join our growing community of artists, art and culture connoisseurs, and Treasure Coast community members.

The Peacock House Art Foundation, Inc. is non-profit art and culture center, with a charitable purpose:

- To connect the community to welcoming and safe venues for the exploration and practice of art and culture
- To provide community building, inclusion, collaboration, and engagement through artistic growth and expression
- To further develop and support the Peacock Arts District of Fort Pierce, and our local art community, through public art exposure, art education, classes, and opportunities
- To provide artists with resources, tools, and exhibit opportunities
- To bring diverse, multicultural, and international artists from around the world through our Artists-in-Residence (AIR) program

These tenants are the basis of our foundation's overall goals, and what we consider with every action we take. By enacting these goals, we're able to recruit members which benefits artist-members like yourself, as well as the foundation.

Benefits of Artist Membership

More than the sum of their parts, our offered benefits have been created specifically to help our artist members get their name out there, build a following, and make sales.

Please note, some of the benefits listed are pending the finalization of our infrastructure, as we are still in our growing stages; these are denoted by "pending" next to them. Thank you for your patience as we work to finalize our offerings.

Requirements of Artist Membership

- Artist Members must provide staff with images, titles, sizes, and mediums of any works that the artist wants listed on our Online Gallery (staff is not responsible for obtaining this information from artists websites).
- Artist Members must provide TPHAF with one piece of artwork to hang in the Member Gallery. They will rotate this work out on a 3 month schedule, or as requested by staff under special circumstances (such as after a sale).
- Artist Members must host an exhibit of their (pre-approved) work, at least once a year on TPHAF grounds. Details and schedule can be determined with Staff.
- Artist Members are encouraged to host a class, at least once a year, in the Art Lab, The class may be of your choosing, for either kids or adults. There is a 40/60 split of the ticket cost provided to participating guest artists (40% to the artist / 60% to the foundation). See our website for more details.
- Artist Members are encouraged to share their membership status, and any events, classes, or exhibits in which they are participating on social media.
- Artist Members are required to bring a selection of artwork to The Peacock House Art Foundation's Annual Art Exhibit and Fundraiser, held each spring (see staff for details).
- Artist Members must agree to all adhere to terms and conditions as listed below, as well as any applicable laws.
